

THE POWER OF A TABLET

Digital tools are changing the way people in the developing world access financial services. Opportunity has loan officers and a network of “agents” who have been trained to serve people in remote communities far away from the nearest bank. By using tablets when they work with clients, they are transforming the banking experience—see how!

